HYEYOON PARK & BENJAMIN GROSVENOR

Violin and piano duo

Since first meeting at education charity London Music Masters in their respective roles as Award Holder and Ambassador in 2013, violinist Hyeyoon Park and pianist Benjamin Grosvenor have forged a close musical partnership founded on deep understanding, unwavering musical integrity, technical mastery and electrifying interpretations. Previous duo engagements have taken them across the world, from New York City's Frick Collection to Vienna's Konzerthaus, from London's Wigmore Hall and Konzerthaus Dortmund to Boston's Harvard Musical Association. Together with violinist Raja Halder they founded the Bromley & Beckenham International Music Festival, whose first edition took place in September 2020.

Hyeyoon Park:

An artist of outstanding style and virtuosity, Hyeyoon Park has achieved international acclaim with orchestras such as the Symphonieorchester des Bayerischen Rundfunks, London Philharmonic Orchestra, Orchestre Symphonique de Montreal, NDR Elbphilharmonie Orchester, and the Mariinsky Orchestra, as well as the NHK, Tokyo Metropolitan and Yomiuri Nippon symphony orchestras. The youngest ever winner of the ARD International Music Competition in Munich at seventeen in 2009, Hyeyoon was also a recipient of the Borletti-Buitoni Trust Award in 2011. A keen chamber musician, she has appeared at music festivals around the world, including Marlboro Festival at the invitation of Mitsuko Uchida, and has collaborated with partners such as Gidon Kremer, Andras Schiff, Christian Tetzlaff, Antje Weithaas, Yuri Bashmet, Lars Vogt, Daniel Hope, Alban Gerhardt, Jan Vogler and Florian Uhlig.
